

A.P. Construction History: 1981 to Present

1981
A.P. Construction Company founded. Started with interior work.

1991
The K.T. Murphy School marked the start of a strategic initiative in schoolwork and led to the completion of more than 27 schools.

1992
The Westchester office opened at 925 Westchester Avenue.

1992
EastRidge Properties portfolio of 18 buildings and 2 million sf awarded to Ashforth; interiors to A.P. Construction.

1992
AIG was the first trading floor project.

1993
Nick Everett, Senior Vice President, joined A.P. Construction.

1994
A.P. Construction completed renovation of the City of Stamford's Newfield & Roxbury elementary schools. This was A.P.'s first public schoolwork.

1995
A.P. Construction renovated Hyperion Software's Stamford, CT-based worldwide headquarters.

1996
New Canaan's three public elementary schools were completed. This was the largest job for A.P. Construction to-date.

1997
Corporate structure change. Andy Ashforth became CEO of A.P. Construction.

2000
A.P. Construction dollar volume reached $66 million.

2000
Greenwich High School completed. This was the first joint venture project with O&G Industries. It led to three more ventures worth $200 million.

2002
A.P. Construction relocated from 3001 Summer Street to 707 Summer Street, Stamford, CT.

2003
The Graham Capital project was completed and valued at $15 million.

2005
Tom Walsh, Senior Vice President, joined A.P. Construction.

2005
A.P. Construction dollar volume reached $100 million.

2005
Norwalk Police Department renovation was completed. The well-drawn plans and highly visible building helped make the project a success.

2005
Fairfield Public Library assumption from Klewin Building Company.

2006
The new Nokia headquarters project was completed and valued at $32 million.

2006
A.P. Construction's Westchester office relocated to 120 Bloomingdale Road, White Plains, NY.

2006
A.P. Construction celebrated its 25th anniversary.

2006
A.P. Construction donated $10,000 and 60 employees to help erect a playground in downtown Stamford, CT.

2006
A.P. Construction completed LEED Gold certified Darien Library.